Controls on Small Firms Are Lifted

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government today lifted wage and price controls from millions of small businesses and small government units, generally those with 60 or fewer employees.

Director Donald Rumsfeld of the President's Cost of Living Council said the move was aimed at streamlining the controls program, and was not a step toward ending it.

The council did not remove controls from the health or construction industries. Rent controls weren't changed either. The health category includes hospitals, etc. in separate moves the council brought many construction and health firms under tighter government scrutiny, expanded the staffs of the Pay Board and the Price Commission by about one-third, and reassigned hundreds of Internal Revenue Service Agents from controlling small businesses to controlling firms that remain under pay and price regulations.

"The decision to exempt small businesses, small governments and their employees from wage and price controls is designed to eliminate unnecessary red tape," the council said in a printed statement.

The council said that its decision will bring the total of exempt firms to five million. The council earlier had exempted 1.5 million of these.

The decision also means that $500 billion in yearly sales won't be covered by price controls. This is 28 per cent of all sales, the council said.

A total of 19 million employees or 26 per cent of the nation's payroll wage earners, won't be affected by pay controls. Many of these are already exempt under an earlier ruling lifting controls from persons earning less than $1.90 hourly.

The council said 1.5 million companies with $1.30 billion in yearly sales and 53 million employees remain under controls.

The decision also exempts 378,000 employees of governmental units with 60 or fewer workers. This is about seven per cent of local government workers.

Uses Highway Dept. Airplane

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gove. Dale Bumpers has been flown in the state Highway Department airplane 17 times since January and a Highway Commission member has used it 11 times.

In April 1971 Bumpers signed an agreement with the department for use of the plane on a cost-share basis at $77.40 per hour. To date, records show he has paid $1,233 for using the plane.

Maurice Smith of Birdeye, a commission member, has flown in the plane between Little Rock and Wynne 11 times since January, records show.

Ward Goodman, highway director, said Smith did not share in the cost of operating the plane because he is an employee of the Highway Department.

Smith has used the plane to fly to commission meetings in Little Rock. Goodman said on such trips Smith did not claim reimbursement for mileage.

Court Rejects ABA News Guidelines

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Supreme Court rejected today proposed rules that would have restricted the release and publication of information on criminal matters.

The court said in an opinion by Associate Justice Lyle Brown that it was not convinced that Arkansas had a problem with court news dissemination. Brown also said the court doubted whether all of the proposed rules were constitutional.

The Arkansas Bar Association had filed a petition with the court seeking adoption of the five rules to the existing regulations on criminal procedure. Rules adopted by the Supreme Court regulate the conduct of court cases in Arkansas.

The proposed new rules would have primarily affected the trial courts, attorneys, law officers and newspapers. The Arkansas Press Association, Sigma Delta Chi, the professional society of journalists, and individual reporters had filed petitions expressing opposition to the proposed rules.

Rules regulating the release of information on criminal cases have been adopted in about 23 other states.

"The Constitution of the United States guarantees freedom of the press," Brown wrote. "It also guarantees the right to trial by an impartial jury."

"When rules such as those submitted to this court are drafted, the problem of balancing those two guarantees so that neither may be infringed upon confronts the drafters," he said. "We are not here required to pass upon the constitutionality of each of the proposed rules now before us; however, we do have some doubt that all the provisions would pass a constitutionality test."

With Corporations

Some Fund-Raising Groups Fail to Reveal All Ties

By H. L. SCHWARTZ III
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — In apparent violation of the new federal election law, some political fund-raising committees have failed to disclose corporate ties when registering with the government.

An examination of the more than 600 registration statements filed with the General Accounting Office since the law took effect April 7 shows that 24 committees have officers who are officers of particular corporations.

Of these, 14 included the corporate name in the committee title or listed it openly elsewhere in their statements.

Ten others did not: Gulf Oil, Illinois Central Industries, Union Oil, Tennessee Eastman Co., Seaboard Coast Line Railroad, General American Transportation, Quaker Oats and three smaller companies.

In telephone interviews, most corporate executives said no connection existed between their companies and the various committees because bylaws of the committees do not restrict membership or donors solely to those employed by their companies.

Centennial Meeting

If you would like to have a part in helping the City of Hope commemorate its first hundred years, then come to the Town Hall Meeting to be held Tuesday, May 2, 7:00 p.m. in the Hope City Hall. About 100 persons will be required to man all the committees needed to stage a really outstanding centennial event.

General Chairman, Haskell Jones, will ask for committee volunteers after Secretary of State Kelly Bryant presents some historical background on the city's beginning.

Committee chairmen and members are needed for the following: Historical Program, Special Events, Property, Advertising and Publicity, Finance, Religious, Sports, Agricultural, Merchants, Music and Pageantry, Industrial, Supply.

A suggestive calendar of events will be proposed by the chairman and acted on by the committees formed at this meeting. To help your town have a happy 100th birthday, come take a job Tuesday, May 2, 7:00 p.m. - Hope City Hall.

Americans Evacuated

SAIGON (AP) — All American advisors were evacuated safely from the besieged provincial capital of Quang Tri City today when it appeared the city was in danger of falling to the North Vietnamese, field reports said.

The field reports did not indicate how many advisers were lifted out by helicopter. At last report there were as many as 89 in Quang Tri, a provincial capital about 20 miles south of the demilitarized zone. Previous reports indicated that some advisers had been evacuated earlier.

Field reports said that because of heavy North Vietnamese pressure, it was necessary to get the advisers out immediately. Despite intense enemy antiaircraft fire, there were no reports of helicopters being shot down.

There were no reports on where the advisers were taken. The most likely points would be Hue, Phu Bai or Da Nang, to the south.

Showers Are Due

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Thunderstorms, some of them severe, rolled through Arkansas today, but the forecast called for precipitation to end by Tuesday.

The National Weather Service said the state would get decreasing cloudiness and cooler temperatures tonight, with lows in the upper 40s northwest to the upper 50s south.

The cooler and clearer weather results from a cold front, which triggered the rain-showers as it passed through the state.

The forecast for Tuesday called for partly cloudy and mild with high temperatures in the 70s.

The service said rainfall will average near one inch across the state as a result of the thunderstorms, but that larger amounts might be recorded in some of the heavier thunderstorms.

Rainfall reports around the state in the 24-hour period ended at 7:30 a.m. today included 1.34 inches at Fayetteville, 1.04 at Harrison, .57 at Jonesboro, 1.05 at Memphis, .07 at Little Rock and a trace at Fort Smith.

Fall of Quang Tri Is Biggest Red Victory

THE SOUND OF WAR is ever bothersome to these South Vietnamese youngsters as they hear the big guns near Dong Ha. The booms come from a firebase four miles north, where a playground used to be.

By GEORGE ESPER

SAIGON (AP) — South Vietnam's first provincial capital fell to the North Vietnamese today after five days of savage assaults in the northern sector by troops of four divisions. It was Hanoi's biggest victory of its 38-day offensive.

South Vietnamese troops abandoned Quang Tri and into enemy hands went territory stretching down from the demilitarized zone 27 miles to the south.

This May Day triumph followed the enemy's seizure of full control of the population and important rice crops along the central coast; the cutting of Highway 1 in crucial points north of Da Nang, site of the big U.S. air base; and renewed enemy pressure on Kontum, another provincial capital in the central highlands.

With the fall of Quang Tri, population 27,000 a threat be-

Highways Are Deadly

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The weekend highway death toll in Arkansas rose to 11 today with a State Police report that two more persons died in a Sunday night crash on U.S. 64. Trooper Joe Jacobs identified the dead as Janette Spradlin, 17, of near Russellville and Howard Dean Thompson of Altus.

Miss Spradlin was driving one car, Thompson was riding in another. Jacobs said the Spradlin car was attempting to pass a truck on the crest of a hill when the two cars hit head-on on the shoulder of the high-

About Money

Housing Probe Is Launched

By G. C. THELEN Jr.
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congressional investigators have launched a double-barreled probe of the financial machinations plunging the government's inner-city homeownership program into multi-billion-dollar losses and scandal.

Hearings in the House and Senate this week will examine allegations that financial institutions aided speculators in plundering the Federal Housing Administration through the sale of decrepit houses to poor families at large profits.

Starting today, the Senate antitrust and monopoly subcommittee will air the New York City case that brought indictments last month of Dun & Bradstreet, the blue-chip credit-rating firm, nine other corporations and 40 individuals, including the No. 3 man in the FHA's New York City insuring office.

A House government-operations subcommittee continues hearings Tuesday on the FHA's role in similar cases involving Philadelphia, Detroit, Chicago, St. Louis and other cities.

The government says the illegal operators work this way: speculators flood a ramshackle neighborhood with a cash-for-rental scheme, then sell the property to the FHA at a profit. The FHA then sells the property to the poor families who are supposed to be helped by the program.

No Ground Forces Will Be Recommitted to War

By FRANK CORMIER
Associated Press Writer

FLORESVILLE, Tex. (AP) — President Nixon says no U.S. ground forces will be recommitted to the stepped-up war in South Vietnam but declares Hanoi runs "a very great risk" with its current offensive.

Nixon, inviting questions from a blue-ribbon crowd of Texans at the ranch of Treasury Secretary John B. Connally, said Sunday night that American combat troops are not directly involved in the Vietnam fighting.

"And none will be," Nixon said.

The President, who fielded friendly questions, interrupted by enthusiastic applause, for nearly an hour, said North Vietnam runs great risk if it continues what he has repeatedly termed a naked invasion of the South.

"I will just leave it there," he said cryptically, "and they can make their choice."

At the same time, he asserted that U.S. bombing missions in both halves of Vietnam would be limited to military targets.

He said Gen. Creighton W. Abrams, the U.S. commander in Saigon, had given his "professional judgment that the South Vietnamese will be able to hold and deny to the North Vietnamese their goal which, of course, is to impose on the people of South Vietnam a communist government."

Later, Nixon said the Saigon forces could resist successfully, provided the United States continues to supply air and naval support.

The President and Mrs. Nixon were overnight guests at the Picoso ranch of Connally, the only Democrat in the Cabinet and a man still mentioned as a possible replacement for Vice President Spiro T. Agnew on this year's GOP ticket.

Should the enemy succeed in its current offensive in Vietnam, Nixon declared, world peace would be endangered and other nations would lose respect for the office of the presidency.

"I am not going to let that happen," he asserted.

A communist success in South Vietnam, said Nixon, would "be a bloodbath that would stain the hands of the United States for time immemorial."

Secret Peace Talks

PARIS (AP) — The North Vietnamese negotiator who held secret talks with Henry A. Kissinger last year is back in Paris amid predictions from his colleagues that a new round of secret Vietnam talks may begin soon.

Le Duc Tho, a member of Hanoi's Politburo, returned to Paris Sunday by way of Peking and Moscow and declared he was ready "to continue negotiations."

This made no direct comment on widespread expectation of resumed secret negotiations. But spokesmen for Hanoi's peace mission here said last week such talks probably will be held. The United States has declined comment on the prospect.

In his airport arrival statement, Tho attacked U.S. Ambassador William J. Porter's insistence that the first item of business in public talks should be "your invasion of South Vietnam."

The white-haired Communist leader said aggression against South Vietnam by the North was impossible because the fighting "is the just right of the entire Vietnamese people to self-defense."

Candidates Seek Support in Major Ohio Cities

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF
AP Political Writer

Sens. Hubert H. Humphrey and George S. McGovern seek support in Ohio's major cities today in last-day campaigning for Tuesday's presidential primary. McGovern said an upset over Humphrey could be "the catalyst we need to go all the way to the nomination."

With 153 delegates to the Democratic National Convention riding on the Ohio outcome, Humphrey plans to campaign across the state's northern industrial belt—Toledo, Canton and Cleveland—while McGovern hits several of the same spots and also takes in Cincinnati and Dayton.

Ohio leads the list of four primaries Tuesday.

Humphrey is also competing in neighboring Indiana, where his main rival for 76 delegates is Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace. Wallace is the target of loyalist Democrats in the Alabama primary.

In the District of Columbia, Democrats will elect 15 national convention delegates. The candidates are all running uncommitted.

Sen. Edmund S. Muskie, who dropped out of active primary campaigning last week, remains on the Indiana ballot and has a full slate running in Ohio. Sen. Henry M. Jackson is the other principal Democratic contender.

Jackson plans a Cleveland news conference today before returning to Washington, D.C. Wallace plans a series of airport stops around Indiana.

In the companion Republican primaries Tuesday, President Nixon's supporters are expected to score a virtual clean sweep.

Over the weekend, a number of states picked delegates, either to the national convention or to state and district conventions. Nixon was the uncontested winner among Republicans in Kansas, Kentucky, Maine and Oklahoma.

In Kentucky, McGovern won enough support to insure that eight of the 47 delegates to be selected later will be in his camp. Most of the rest will be uncommitted under the leadership of Gov. Wendell Ford, who still supports Muskie.

In the state of Washington, McGovern appeared to be making significant inroads in the home state of Jackson. Jackson appeared certain to win a majority of the 52 delegates, but McGovern's forces showed enough strength to net as many as 16 delegates.

In Nevada, McGovern also made a stronger-than-expected showing as 20 delegates were named at the state Democratic convention. Though most were listed as uncommitted, party sources said seven each supported Humphrey and McGovern, while two back Jackson.

Protestant Backlash May Be Started in N. Ireland

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) — Embattled police said today Northern Ireland's dreaded Protestant backlash may be starting after Protestant crowds went on a stoning, burning and looting rampage in Belfast.

Shops and pubs were set ablaze in a three-hour fight Sunday between rioters and police in eastern Belfast's Newtownards Road district, a Protestant stronghold. Bloody riots in eastern Belfast Saturday night injured 12 police and 13 civilians.

A spokesman at Belfast police headquarters said, "It's a case of the gamekeepers turned poachers. The Protestant crowds are attacking us. The Protestant backlash seems under way."

He said the violence no longer seemed solely the work of teen-age gangs who wear tartan scarves as badges of Protestantism. The rioters' base appeared to be broadening from a purely hooligan element, he added.

Up to now, the Roman Catholic Irish Republican Army has caused most of the violence in Northern Ireland's nearly three years of bloodshed and destruction.

The anger of the Protestant majority has been mounting since Britain a month ago suspended the Protestant-based provincial parliament and assumed direct rule in a move to placate rebellious Catholics.

Hardline Protestant leader William Craig, founder of the militant Vanguard movement which claims 100,000 supporters, issued a warning to the British government Sunday night.

His letter to Prime Minister Edward Heath said unless the IRA is completely destroyed "then the loyalist people of Ulster will have no other option but to take action which is considered appropriate in the present situation."

Craig said Protestants were beginning to envisage civil war. Sunday night and early today, at least six shops and pubs were wrecked by flying rocks or set ablaze with flaming gasoline bombs. Police reported widespread looting.

Rioters hijacked a garbage collection truck and used it to haul rocks to sidestreets battle-grounds.

In the Catholic enclave of Ardoyne, youths commandeered vehicles and turned them into blazing barricades to protect gunmen who fired at army patrols.

The British Troops shot back but claimed no hits.

In Londonderry, Northern Ireland's second city where the IRA rules 35,000 people behind barricades and trenches, guerrillas shot in the leg a man whom they accused of stealing money.

came more imminent to the old imperial capital of Hue, now only 24 miles south of the northernmost defensive line of the South Vietnamese on Highway 1.

All American advisers were safely evacuated by helicopter shortly before it was decided to abandon plans to defend Quang Tri. Most of the civilians had long since fled and only a very few remained.

At last report there were 39 U.S. advisers in Quang Tri but some were said to have left earlier.

Scouts Win Blue Ribbon

The Fulton-Guernsey Scout Troop No. 79, won first place at the Scoutarama in Texarkana. Their team and display theme was "Hospitality on the Trail in the Old West". Those participating were: Gary Smith, Eddie Akins, Ken Cox, Scott Rowland, Mike Sweesey, James Polk, Gary Biddle, Randy Biddle, Buddy Arnold, Billy Arnold, and Scoutmasters, Luke Biddle and Robert Arnold.

The scouts cooked and served coffee and "trail juice" in the setting of a trail camp with a covered wagon, old guns, saddles, and plows. The covered wagon was donated by the Richard VanHorn family of Hope.

Outstanding Serviceman Award

BILLY ANDERSON AND WAYNE GAMBLE

Billy Anderson of Hope received the Sears Outstanding Serviceman Award for District 3 B for the second consecutive year in a presentation Wednesday. The award is based on records kept on all Sears servicemen and the selection is made on the overall service performance.

Anderson, who has been employed eight years at Sears, was honored at a dinner Tuesday evening. Employees of the Hope store and their spouses attended. Wayne Gamble, Sears District Service and Installation Manager, made the presentation.

Withdrawals Exceed Goal

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. troop withdrawals have exceeded President Nixon's May 1 target by 2,700 men, the U.S. Command announced today. But U.S. Naval strength off Vietnam continued to grow.

The command's weekly summary put U.S. military strength in Vietnam at 68,100 men as of last Thursday—a cut of 8,400—and spokesmen said the level as of midnight April 30 was 66,300. President Nixon's May 1 goal was 69,000.

Nixon has set 49,000 as his July 1 troop strength target. At the peak three years ago there were 543,000 American troops in Vietnam.

Three thousand U.S. sailors were added to the reported total aboard some 55 warships in the Gulf of Tonkin and South American servicemen operating with the Air Force in Thailand. Additionally 5,000 to 10,000 Air Force men are based on Guam to support B52 bomber strikes over Vietnam.

Pelican as Symbol
In religious allusions, the pelican is the symbol of the Body and Blood of Christ and of His atoning sacrifice, because the bird was popularly believed to feed her young with her blood.

Music Club Meets

In a pretty setting of roses and pansies at the home of Mrs. B. C. Hyatt on April 28 the Friday Music Club met with 19 members, one associate member, Mrs. George Frazier, and one guest, Mrs. P. H. Webb. As each person arrived, a pink rose was pinned on her by one of the hostesses, Mrs. Hyatt, Mrs. Garrett Story, and Mrs. B. W. Edwards.

After reading the Collect, the members were told the history of the Hymn of the Month, "All Hail the Power," by Mrs. James McLarty who also led in singing it, accompanied by Mrs. Arthur Strech, pianist. Mrs. Helen Hatch, president, had charge of the business meeting.

The nominating committee presented the following slate of officers who was accepted unanimously by the members: president, Mrs. James McLarty; 1st vice-president, Mrs. Calvin Smith; 2nd vice-president, Mrs. Clarence Geist; 3rd vice-president, Mrs. Garland Medders; recording secretary, Mrs. E. A. Pendergraft; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Charles Reynerson; treasurer, Mrs. Harry McLeomore; librarian, Mrs. B. C. Hyatt; choral director, Mrs. Paul Morgan; pianist, Mrs. Arthur Strech; parliamentarian, Mrs. Helen Hatch; historian, Mrs. W. E. White; auditor, Mrs. McDowell Turner; Junior Club counselors, Mrs. C. C. McNeill and Mrs. R. L. Gosnell.

Mrs. C. C. McNeill and Mrs. R. L. Gosnell.

For the duo-piano program Mrs. Paul Henley and Mrs. B. C. Hyatt played a Mozart Sonata with second piano accompaniment by Edward Grieg. A piano quartet composed of Mrs. Helen Hatch, Mrs. Eugene White, Mrs. B. W. Edwards, and Mrs. Hendrix Spraggins played "March Militaire" by Franz Schubert. The last number, "Suite for Two Pianos" by an American composer, Mrs. H. H. A. Beach, was based on old Irish melodies and was performed by Mrs. Arthur Strech and Mrs. B. C. Hyatt.

During the refreshment hour, fruit pie and coffee were served.

Ladies Bridge Luncheon

Arrangements of red roses and of pink roses and honeysuckle were used at the Hope Country Club for decorations at the Ladies Bridge-Luncheon on Thursday, April 27. Mrs. C. P. Tolleson and Mrs. H. C. Whitworth were hostesses for the entertainment that began with a luncheon of creamed chicken in pastry shells, salad and dessert.

In the afternoon, bridge was played at five tables. High scorer at the conclusion of play was Mrs. C. P. Tolleson, and Mrs. H. C. Whitworth was second high. Two guests from Millwood, Mrs. Tilman Bearden and Mrs. Alston Foster, tied for the game prize.

Other out-of-town guests were Mrs. L. R. Person, Garland, Ark., and several from El Dorado, Mrs. Jack Ambrose, Mrs. Lee Byrne, Mrs. Sallye Herring, and Mrs. Louise Burns.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitch LaGrone went to Dallas for the Byron Nelson Golf Classic this weekend.

Mrs. Josephine Rogers of Perrytown left Saturday for three weeks in her homeland, Korea.

Mrs. Connie Robbins, Mrs. John Prothro, Mrs. Norris Steele and Mrs. Jerry Westmoreland went to a luncheon in Texarkana Thursday for the Hope District Parsonnettes, an organization of Methodist preachers' wives.

In step with the nostalgia tune, ballroom dancing is making a comeback. And dance lessons are a great way to work off extra pounds. And they can also accent grace and poise you never thought you had.

Early Tan

A good way to get an early start on a good summer tan (and not a burn) is to sunbathe in the backyard or on the terrace in the spring so that you build up a base tan. The sun is less strong in spring than in summer and so is less potentially damaging to your delicate skin.

HAM, POTATO AND BEAN SALAD

An interesting combination of ingredients.
4 cups sliced cooked potatoes, about 2 pounds before cooking
2 cups cooked ham strips, about 1 pound
1 package (9 ounces) frozen whole green beans, cooked and drained
2 medium apples, pared and cored and sliced
2/3 cup real mayonnaise
1 tablespoon cider vinegar
1 tablespoon prepared mustard
1 teaspoon dried chervil
Salt and pepper to taste
Lettuce leaves
2 hard-cooked eggs sliced
Toss together potatoes, ham, beans and apples. Stir together mayonnaise, vinegar, mustard, chervil, salt and pepper until smooth. Toss with meat mixture until well coated. Chill. Serve on lettuce leaves and garnish with egg slices. Makes 4 to 6 servings

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer NEW YORK (AP) — CBS demonstrated with a pair of specials Sunday night two forthright techniques for the production of workman-like television programs.

In "The Issue of Busing," which pre-empted "60 Minutes," correspondent Roger Mudd outlined the controversy, and for the next hour a parade of spokesmen for different opinions—government officials, congressmen, representatives of organizations—merely faced the camera and read their statements, pro and con.

In "The Metropolitan Opera Salute to Sir Rudolf Bing," the network two weeks ago focused its cameras on the opera house stage and the glittering audience when the tribute was held for the retiring general manager. Then the tape was edited from about four hours to one hour.

Watching a succession of closeup shots showing serious men expounding their opinions is not exactly a visual treat, but the method does permit a lot of ground to be covered and various shades of opinion to be aired. It was a good summary.

The opera gala was as satisfactory as most entertainments not conceived expressly for television. The stage itself presents definite limitations. However, there is so little classical music and even less opera seen on television that this program with its all-star cast of singers and bits from great operas, had to be a special treat for millions of viewers.

On the light entertainment side, ABC came up with a two-hour pilot program for an action show which will be on its fall schedule. "Assignment: Munich"—which will be called "Assignment: Vienna" in its hour-long incarnation—evoked memories of the good old days of "The Third Man" and television's long-running, "Foreign Intrigue."

There were lots of killings, wild fights and furious chases—all filmed against interesting German backgrounds. The total result, alas, was very familiar trenchcoat derring-do with a well-telegraphed ending.

If the networks are really serious about holding down vio-

Automotive Scarlet Letter?

Dear Helen:

A legislator in our state has a great idea. He's written a bill asking that convicted drunken drivers be required to display a large "D" on both front and back of their vehicles for six months after their convictions.

In addition to this eight-by-eleven inch letter, they would have a red "D" stamped on their driver's licenses.

This might keep a few boozers off the sauce while driving—and it would certainly warn others that they are dangerous.

How does this hit you? — SCARED TEETOTALER

Dear St:

It hits a sour note with me! After a fixed number of offenses, drunks should have their licenses suspended—as they menace other drivers. But an automotive scarlet letter? The finger-pointing, snickers and avoidance it would cause might even drive a person to drink! — H.

Dear Helen:

My husband works long hours and I get bored with no companionship. Three years ago I flirted with another man, but Gary stopped me before it got serious. He forgave me and never mentioned it again.

Just recently I went out a couple of times with a 19-year-old boy. I keep telling Gary nothing happened, but he won't believe this, as he says there are "no nice boys left." He's only caught me "straying" twice.

Every time we have more than three drinks, Gary says he going to find this boy and bet the H out of him. Sober, he seems to forgive me.

Why should he be so upset now when the other flirtation was the more dangerous? And should I warn the young man, or just try to keep them separated? — TWICE REPENTANT WIFE

Dear TRW:

Twice burned, triple suspicious. I'd suggest you limit yourselves to two drinks or less, and cure boredom with useful lence in next season's product, ABC's censors have their work cut out in advance on the "Assignment: Vienna" scripts.

work, not playing around. — H

Dear Helen:

This isn't a reply to "Not Naive" on co-ed dorms. I know better than to try prying that kind of mind open. But many parents must be worrying about this comparatively new living arrangement on campus, and perhaps I can relieve their minds somewhat.

I have been around an assortment of American and Canadian colleges and universities in the last dozen years, both as student and faculty member. I have seen rigid separation of sexes and I have seen co-ed dorms. My conclusion is this: the guy or gal who is prone to swing will probably be straightened out in a co-ed dorm or else he or she will leave. The wilder ones are just too much of a nuisance, because—would you believe?—most of the people are there to study and earn a degree. Sure they have fun but, by golly, they work like crazy, too. And much of their fun is no more "depraved" than water-balloon fights or dumping a loudmouth into the pool.

Sometimes, too, a co-ed dorm can do what no other setup can. Consider a friend of mine: very strictly brought up, serious, very shy. In one year at a co-ed dorm, she blossomed into a PERSON, and a delightful one at that. She left college with not only her degree but with lasting, rewarding friendships.

One of the healthiest features of co-ed living is that it does not foster a shut-in exclusiveness. Dorm people date nondorm people more than each other, so that the dorms become centers for on-campus activities of all kinds.

My conclusion is that if people who come to co-ed dorms have been decently raised for the previous 18 years or so they will come to no harm in a mixed house. So go shrink your head, "Not Naive!" — GUY W.

P.S. I am now working toward my doctorate at the University of California at Berkeley. It's the firm belief of this middle-ager that the young people presently getting their higher education are a tremendous group — the hope of our future!

Dear Guy: I'm so glad you agree with me! Some 70 per cent of our American colleges and universities now have co-ed dorms. But still parents shudder. Read on: Dear Mrs. Bottel: Your answer to "Not Naive" (who revealed the truth about those wild co-ed dorms) proves YOU have not been to college recently.

Our daughter is on a college campus and we visit her frequently. It is indeed sickening to see the girls and boys lying around together like animals, the girls in various stages of undress.

No LADY should condone open housing. Why expose our daughters to this loose way of living then sanctimoniously pray, "Lead her not into temptation." — MRS. V.E.K.

Wilt Leads Lakers to Easy Win, Playoff Series Even

By RON ROACH
Associated Press Sports Writer
LOS ANGELES (AP) — By design or otherwise, big Wilt Chamberlain is scoring again and he's likely to keep it up for awhile.

At least the Los Angeles Lakers want it that way after their 7-foot-1 center dominated both ends of the court—scoring 23 points and grabbing 24 rebounds—in Sunday's 106-92 victory over the New York Knicks at the Forum.

Chamberlain took only 11 shots last Wednesday night and scored 12 points when the Lakers lost the best-of-seven series opener, 114-92. The National Basketball Association championship playoffs resume Wednesday night for game three in New York's Madison Square Garden.

Besides Chamberlain's scoring—which he once did with such regularity that he's the NBA's all-time leading scorer—Sunday's game had his aftermath: —Dave DeBusschere, the Knicks' 6-foot-6 forward who the Lakers feel is a big key in the series because of his outside shooting and rebounding ability, has a pulled muscle in his right side.

—The Lakers proved they can play defense, too, blitzing New York 28-11 in the third quarter.

—The Knicks, as shooters, proved they are human. They can miss, too. They weren't nearly as sharp as in the series opener when they made 72 percent of their first-half field goal attempts.

The big question was whether DeBusschere can play on Wednesday night, and if he does, will he be 100 percent?

DeBusschere, who led all rebounders with 10 in the first half, was hurt colliding with Chamberlain when the two sought the same rebound in the second quarter.

"Losing Dave is a big blow because he does so many things well," said New York Coach Red Holzman, who seemed gratified, however, to split the West Coast games.

Coach Bill Sharman of the Lakers said Chamberlain "was tremendous. We wanted him to go to the basket more to put more pressure on Jerry Lucas. He has sacrificed his shooting this season to do other things (rebounding and shotblocking). Today we needed his scoring."

The Lakers played better defense and got 31 points from guard Gail Goodrich, but the deciding factors in the game appeared to be DeBusschere's injury and Chamberlain's shooting.

By going to the basket, Chamberlain drew fouls from Lucas, the Knicks' 6-8 center who had 16 points. Walt Frazier's New York high was 21, only three in the second half.

Lucas, whose long-range shots weren't falling in with the amazing accuracy of the first game, picked up his fourth foul in the disastrous third period, joining DeBusschere on the bench.

Casper Feels He Can Play Again

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Golf Writer
DALLAS (AP) — "I feel like I can play again now," Billy Casper said.

The veteran pro, winner of more than 40 tour titles but slump-ridden a year and a half, was talking about a changed mental attitude that he credited with helping him to a one-stroke lead after three rounds of the rain-delayed, $125,000 Byron Nelson Golf Classic.

"I'm more relaxed," Casper said after a one-under-par 69 in Sunday's third round that gave him with a 54-hole total of 202, eight under par on the Preston Trail Golf Club course.

"Everything seems easier now. Things that were banked against me before now seem to be going for me," said Casper.

"Mainly, I'm thinking better, better than I have all year."

And it was thinking—or lack of it, a mental lapse—that may have led to a triple bogey seven on the 17th hole that cost Canadian longshot Wilf Homenik a share of the top spot in this chase for a $25,000 first prize, more than he has won in any of six previous seasons on the American tour.

He failed to call for relief—to which he was entitled—when his tee shot was plugged in the mud. The slightly-built 34-year-old from Winnipeg was tied for the lead at that point, but tried to hit a six iron out of the mud. It caught a creek and he later three-putted for the seven.

A Tournament Players' Division official later confirmed that Homenik was entitled to a free drop from the mud—if he had called for a ruling. He didn't and was stuck with the seven.

That left him with a 71 and a 205 total going into today's final round. The tournament schedule was pushed back one day when Thursday's play was rained out.

He was in fourth place, trailing Casper, Puerto Rican veteran Chi Chi Rodriguez and John Schlee, a member of the Preston Trail Club who is seeking his first tour title. Rodriguez birdied the final hole for a 69-203 and Schlee's 69 gave him a 204.

Tulsa Makes a Sweep

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — Tulsa University completed a three-game baseball sweep against Arkansas University-Little Rock Sunday with a 10-2 victory. Richard Rogers' three-run homer in the fifth inning touched off a six-run outburst.

TU won a doubleheader from Little Rock Saturday.

Sunday's was the 36th victory of the season for The Hurricane, ranked No. 1 in the nation. They have lost two.

Tulsa plays a doubleheader Tuesday with Oklahoma State University at Stillwater.

Scholarships Limited

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The Southwest Conference has decided to cut the number of football scholarships.

Howard Grubbs, conference executive secretary, announced after a two-day meeting of faculty representatives that beginning in the fall of 1973 no more than 45 freshman scholarships may be awarded for football.

He said the meeting also decided that, starting in the fall of 1975, no more than 130 football scholarships may be in effect at each school.

Currently, the only football scholarship limit is 50 per year.

The change, Grubbs said, was made in the interest of economy and an attempt to make competition among the conference schools more equal.

"These figures represent a compromise," he said.

The actions will be reviewed at the December meeting, he added.

The SWC also:

—Agreed to permit the University of Houston to compete a year earlier than had been scheduled in all sports but football and basketball.

—Decided to permit freshmen to play football on either the varsity or freshman teams, provided no such player participates in more than one game per week or more than 11 per season.

—Okayed a recommendation by conference basketball coach to do away with a true freshman program and have, instead, a junior varsity program with limits of one game per day and 26 per season on the players.

—Voted to let conference schools contact a high school prospect after Aug. 15 of the athlete's senior year.

—Limited, effective in the fall of 1973, the scholarships for basketball to seven, track and cross country seven, baseball seven, tennis and golf tree each, swimming four. By the fall of 1975, the over-all limits will be 20 each for basketball, baseball, track and cross country, nine each for tennis and golf, 13 for swimming.

Boston Limits Texas to One Hit

By BRUCE LOWITT
Associated Press Sports Writer
"I'm trying to win a starting job in the rotation," Boston's Lew Krausse said—and his manager, Eddie Kasko, quickly responded: "Krausse is certainly going to get another start after the helluva job he did today."

What Krausse did Sunday was give up a single to Len Randle, the first batter he faced, then hold Texas hitless until the ninth inning when Randle nicked him for another hit.

Unfortunately, Boston wasn't getting any runs for Lew. And so, after nine virtually flawless innings, he was removed for a pinch-hitter.

But all was not lost. Carlton Fish had doubled in the top of the 10th before Bob Burda batted for Krausse. And after Burda was given an intentional walk, Tommy Harper crashed a two-run double to the left center field wall, then Luis Aparicio doubled Harper home.

And after Bill Lee came on in relief to set down the side in order in the bottom of the 10th, the Red Sox had a 3-0 triumph over the Rangers and Krausse had his first victory in a Boston uniform.

In Sunday's other American League games, the New York Yankees beat Minnesota 5-4 before the Twins won the second game of their doubleheader by the same score. Milwaukee beat Oakland 3-1, the Chicago White Sox defeated Detroit 6-3, California edged Baltimore 4-3 and Cleveland outlasted Kansas City 5-3 in 16 innings before the second game of their twinbill was rained out.

Rusty Torres' tie-breaking pinch double in the bottom of the ninth inning gave the Yanks the opening game and Rod Carew's tie-breaking two-run single in the eighth inning of the nightcap provided the Twins with a split.

"I don't care if I don't finish a game all year because we've got a good team," Milwaukee's Ken Brett said after driving in one run and scoring the decisive one on Brock Davis' single before being removed in the eighth inning against the A's.

Brett was working on a perfect game for 5-1-3 innings and still had a no-hitter until Sal Bando tripled with one away in the seventh.

Ed Herrmann's grand slam home run, the third of his career and his first four-bagger of the season, was all the White Sox needed to hand Joe Coleman his first setback of the year and snap the Tigers' four game win skein. Jorge Orta also homered for Chicago and Norm Cash had one for Detroit.

Winston Llenas' pinch single drove in the go-ahead run in a three-run seventh inning that vaulted California past the Orioles. Vada Pinson had a first inning homer for the Angels.

Fred Stanley singled, moved to third on a sacrifice and a passed ball and came home on John Brohamer's sacrifice fly that broke the extra-inning leadback for the Indians, who then scored an insurance run to turn back the Royals.

Finley Lashes Kuhn

By MIKE O'BRIEN
Associated Press Writer
MILWAUKEE (AP) — Vida Blue's name might be an Oakland contract now if baseball commissioner Bowie Kuhn hadn't "arbitrarily involved himself and forced himself" into the salary dispute, according to Athletics owner Charles O. Finley.

Finley, still hopeful of signing his brilliant pitcher—on his own terms—switched targets from Blue's agent, Robert Gerst, to Kuhn, in an interview with the Associated Press Sunday.

"It's unfortunate because I thought I had Vida on the verge of signing until he (Kuhn) stepped in," said Finley, here for a weekend series between the A's and Milwaukee Brewers.

"The commissioner arbitrarily involved himself and forced himself into contract negotiations with Blue, and I do not believe he had the authority to do so," he said.

An apparent contract agreement fell through Friday after a 22-hour meeting in Chicago, when Blue refused to sign a joint announcement publicizing details of the pact.

The next day Kuhn, using what he called his general powers to act in "the best interests of baseball," ordered Finley to leave open his offer and said he would urge Blue to accept it.

"That's when I saw red," Finley said.

"I haven't decided whether to keep it open, but right now I will not keep it open—won't even consider it—until he (Kuhn) orders Blue to accept it," he said.

"He has got to retract that statement and request me to keep it open, or go out and order Blue to accept it," he said.

"Or once he has requested both parties to give consideration—that's something else."

Blue earned $14,750 last year while compiling a 24-6 record and winning the American League's most valuable player and Cy Young awards.

Finley said he had offered a $50,000 contract for 1972, plus $13,000 as a bonus for 1971—$5,000 for attorney's fees and $8,000 for Blue's college education. Finley said Gerst initially demanded $115,000.

"Gerst never wanted a joint statement," Finley said. "Why? Because he has had himself in the papers continuously. He wants to make it look like he's getting Vida $63,000."

Champs Still Losing

By KEN RAPPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer
"It's just a matter of time before we start doing our thing," says Pittsburgh Pirate Manager Bill Virdon.

They'd better hurry—they've lost five straight games already.

The defending World Champions, who never dropped more than four in a row during last year's run to the National League pennant, continued to spin Sunday when beaten 6-1 by the Atlanta Braves.

Pitching, which helped them beat the Baltimore Orioles in the 1971 World Series, is no where in sight so far this year. None of the starters has lasted a full game.

In the National League's other games Sunday, the Chicago Cubs defeated the Cincinnati Reds 6-4; the Houston Astros beat the St. Louis Cardinals 7-6; the Los Angeles Dodgers downed the New York Mets 7-0; Montreal topped San Francisco 5-2 in the first game, then dropped the second to the Giants, 13-2 and the Philadelphia Phillies took two from the San Diego Padres, 6-1 and 3-1.

Atlanta's Ralph Garr drove in two runs with a home run and double as the Braves swept their three-game set at Three Rivers Stadium and won their sixth game in the last seven.

Pinch-hitter Carsten Fanzone's hit-run double capped a four-run rally in the eighth inning that lifted Chicago over Cincinnati.

Porkers Have Two Trouble Positions

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Spring practice came and went without solutions for some of the problems that have been nagging Frank Broyles—fullback, tight end and some defensive spots.

He put it this way after the spring sessions were concluded: "The disappointing thing is that some of the players we hoped would step forward in the secondary aren't ready and that we haven't settled on our fullback and that we didn't find any depth at tight end."

Fullback troubles in 1971 "so sorely hampered our offense we had to put top priority in that position this spring."

Jimmy Fryer, one of the top candidates for the fullback spot, missed all of spring practice. Another, Marsh White, was at full speed only one week. Fryer was injured last fall. White underwent surgery recently for what proved to be a minor cartilage problem in his knee.

Mike Saint, who had decided to pass up his final year of eligibility, revealed recently that he would return in the fall. He could provide stability at fullback.

At tight end, junior Steve Hedgepeth ran as the No. 1 man, but Gary Capshaw, who looks like a promising prospect, missed spring practice.

There was a bright side, and not one limited to the offensive exploits of quarterback Joe Ferguson, tailbacks Jon Richardson and Dickey Morton or others on the offense.

Defensive coordinator Mervin Johnson said of his unit: "We had to make an awful lot of progress this spring and I think, by and large, we have."

"Basically, the breakdowns we had were because of inexperience and things like this," he added. "Some of our youngsters have shown they will indeed be sophomores."

The absence of middle linebackers Jim Benton and John Whet from spring work was a disappointment because their injuries "held us back in putting in variations," Johnson said.

"The linebacking corps could be one of the strong points of the defense, depending on the recovery of Benton and Wheat," said.

Johnson said Louis Campbell and Clark Irwin performed well at cornerback and that safety Jim Irwin had improved much. John Moseley, a sophomore-to-be, ran at free safety.

"He makes an error or two, but he's got big-play ability and would be a real comer," Johnson added.

Defensive end is one spot that worries Johnson. The probable starters, Les Williams and Jim Brawner, are "long on heart and desire, but have very average ability," Johnson said.

33 Pro Gridders Are Free Agents

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Thirty-three National Football League players, including such stars as Bart Starr, MacArthur Lane and Ray Nitschke of Green Bay, Bill Munson of Detroit, Dick Gordon of Chicago, and Clint Jones and Gene Washington of Minnesota, became free agents today.

It is not known how many of the 33 have actually played out their options with the purpose of seeking a job with another club and how many are caught in the situation revolving around the wage-price freeze.

But they officially became free agents at midnight Sunday, having played last season without contracts and not having yet signed for the 1972 campaign.

The NFL would not disclose the names of the dissatisfied players, but the Associated Press learned the names of most of them. An NFL spokesman said that when the league has gathered together the names of all the unsigned players, it would send out notifications each of the 26 clubs telling them of the free agents.

"They can then negotiate with any of the players and the players are free to talk with any team," he said.

The group of unsigned players was reduced by five over the weekend when running backs Donny Anderson and Roy Shivers and quarterback Gary Cuozzo signed with St. Louis, tight end Alvin Reed came to terms with Houston and quarterback Bill Kilmer signed with Washington.

The three St. Louis signings trimmed the Cardinals' dissatisfied list to three—guard Joe O'Donnell, linebacker Mike McGill and defensive tackle Rolf Krueger.

Minnesota, however, led the list with seven unsigned players, including receivers Washington, John Henderson and Al Denson, running back Jones, tight end Bob Brown, and defensive backs Charlie West and Nate Wright.

Finks said the Vikings would not attempt to sign Denson, who jumped the club last season after refusing to go on the taxi squad.

Meanwhile, George Halas Jr., Chicago's president-general manager, said linebacker Jimmy Gunn agreed to a contract last week and it was mailed to him in California. Halas said he expected the contract to arrive before the deadline but he did not know if it had arrived.

The Bears' other unsigned players—receiver Gordon, quarterback Jack Concannon and defensive tackle George Seals—were not expected to sign, and Halas said it was highly unlikely the situation would change.

If a player who has become a free agent signs with a new club that team must compensate his old club.

Other players known to be unsigned were:

American Conference

Baltimore—Defense back Charlie Stukes, guard John Williams.

Buffalo—Receiver Marlin Briscoe, linebacker Edgar Chandler.

Cleveland—Defensive end Jack Gregory.

Houston—defensive end Pat Holmes.

New York—Running back George Nock.

San Diego—Tackle Russ Washington, linebacker Bob Bruggers.

National Conference

Detroit—Receiver Larry Walton.

New York—Guard Doug Van Horn.

Arkansas Derby Winner High on List

By ED SCHUYLER Jr.
Associated Press Sports Writer
LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—The 1972 Kentucky Derby field was shaping up as a large one today, with trainers and owners of several 3-year-olds spurred to high hopes of Derby glory by Cannonero II's victory last year.

Despite the presence of such impressive contenders as Riva Ridge, Hold Your Peace and No Le Haze, Derby watchers feel this year's number of starters could at least equal the 20 that ran last year when Cannonero II, a $1,200 yearling and member of the mutual field, broke out of the pack for victory.

Tuesday's one-mile Derby Trial should give a clearer picture of how many will go in the 1¼-mile $125,000-added Derby Saturday at Churchill Downs.

However, Arnold Winick, trainer of Hold Your Peace, noted, "Some of these people have come here to run in the Derby and they won't have it any other way."

Some of the outsiders being pointed for the Derby were U Pos Ent, Pascallo, Sensitive Music, Big Brown Bear and an oft-injured colt named One Eyed Tom who has yet to race. The Derby Trial is expected to draw a field of 12 including No Le Haze, Key to the Mint, Head of the River and New Prospect.

No Le Haze has won all four of his starts this year for Joseph R. Straus including the Louisiana and Arkansas derbies. Key to the Mint, one of the stars of Paul Mellon's powerful Rokeby Stable, has not raced since March 15. Head of the River, who relishes a sloppy track, upset Riva Ridge in the Everglades. New Prospect, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Gilroy, set a track record in the Bahamas.

Also set for the Derby Trial is Dr. Hassi Shina's Lester's Jester, conditioned by Juan Arjas, the man who trained Cannonero II to victory in the Derby and Preakness. Arias also will saddle Dr. Shina's Hassi's Image for the Derby.

But barring injury nothing that happens during Derby week should change the status of Riva Ridge and Hold Your Peace as the first and second favorites, respectively.

Riva Ridge, Mrs. John Tweedy's 1971 2-year-old champion, won one of two starts in Florida and then last Thursday won Keeneland's Blue Grass Stakes, the race which has produced seven of the last 12 Derby winners.

Hold Your Peace, owned by Maribel Blum, won the Flamingo and the Stepping Stone Purse on opening day at the Downs last Saturday. He finished ahead of Riva Ridge in the Everglades but lost to him in the Futurity at Belmont last year.

N. Carolina Awesome

By RALPH BERNSTEIN
Associated Press Sports Writer
PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The scary thing about North Carolina Central's superspeed performance at last weekend's Penn Relays is that three of the five runners who set two national collegiate and one meet relay records are freshmen.

They'll be back, back, back.

The North Carolina Central runners shattered national marks in the mile relay with a 3:03.1, and the sprint medley with a 3:14.8. They established a new 880 meet record of 1:21.8, only one-tenth of a second off the national mark.

The most sensational speed performance in the 78-year history of the world's oldest relay carnival was accomplished by the five ironmen in less than three hours.

"These were the biggest wins in the history of our school," said North Carolina assistant coach Ted Hanley in somewhat of an understatement. Hanley directed the team in the absence of head coach Leroy Walker, who remained at home because of the death of his mother.

The NCC spree started with the sprint medley as the quartet of Julius Sang, Larry Black, Jeff Horsley and Robert Ouku won by some 70-yards over William and Mary. The 3:14.8 lowered the previous national record of 3:15.2 set by a Kansas team anchored by Jim Ryun in 1967.

Actually it was the fastest sprint medley ever run, but is not listed as a world record because many countries don't recognize the sprint medley in their competitive programs. It fails of an American record because Sang and Ouku are Olympians from Kenya. The splits for the race were 46.4 by Sang in the opening quarter, a combined 40.7 by Black and Horsley in 220s, and a 1:47.7 half by Ouku.

Ouku was replaced by Mel Bassett in the 880 about an hour later and this quartet missed a national record by one-tenth of a second with its 1:28.1. It did lower the meet mark of 1:23.3 set in 1970 by Texas El Paso, second this time in 1:22.5, also breaking the old mark.

The final event of the two day program was the mile and Ouku returned in place of Horsley. Bassett led off with a 47.5. Ouku ripped off a 46.2 second leg, and Sang a 45.6 third quarter. Black was so far ahead he could have coasted home on the anchor leg, but instead ran a 43.8, fastest quarter split ever run. The previous best was 43.9 by Villanova's Larry James in 1968.

Future Homemaker Award

KATHY WALDEN, KATHY GRAVES, AND LOU ANN HARTLINE

At a picnic at Fair Park to mark the end of the school year, Patricia Pree, President of the Future Homemakers of America at Hope High School, presents the Junior Homemaker Degree to Kathy Walden as Kathy Graves and Lou Ann Hartline wait to receive their Chapter Degrees. The Junior Homemaker Degree is the first degree an FHAer can earn by completing projects that help her to grow as an individual and as a chapter family, and community member. The Chapter Degree is the advanced degree. Also receiving the Junior Degree was Shirley Benton and receiving the Chapter Degree was Vickie Fellows. Patricia Pree was awarded a special pin with a gavel guard in recognition of her service as 1971-72 president.

Questioned by Hurst

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The question of whether Gov. Dale Bumpers is accessible or not was raised again as Bumpers and one of his opponents opened their headquarters Sunday just blocks from each other. Bumpers, who is seeking reelection, said that in each campaign the question of whether a governor is accessible to the news media and the voters is raised. The governor said if he stayed in his office, he would be criticized for not traveling around the state more. However, Bumpers said if he traveled around the state he would be criticized for not staying in his office. A few blocks away, state Sen. Q. Byron Hurst, who is seeking the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, opened his headquarters. He has charged that Bumpers is inaccessible to the public and has promised if he is elected there will be a flow of information from the Capitol to the voters. Hurst also said Sunday he would continue to work for the repeal of the governmental reorganization bill. He said he would like to return to a more independent form of state agency government. Bumpers said that he had done more for the state than any previous administration.

Children from the Hempstead Child Development Center and the School of Hope made an excursion April 20 on the Reader Railroad. Accompanied by staff workers and members of the Hope Junior Auxiliary, the children boarded the steam powered train at Reader for the twenty-three mile trip to Waterloo. At the end of their hour and a half journey, the children were treated to a picnic lunch provided by Auxiliary members. Both the Development Center and the School of Hope are sponsored by the Junior Auxiliary.

County Officials Seek to Revise County Government

Little Rock.—The Association of Arkansas Counties, which is seeking to place an amendment for revision of county government before Arkansas voters, has kicked off its county campaigns to obtain the signatures necessary for placing the proposed amendment on the ballot at the November 7 General Election.

Columbia County Judge Bob Henderson last week was appointed campaign chairman for the 12 county Southwest district. Today Henderson announced the appointment of Sheriff Henry Sinyard as chairman of the drive to secure signatures in Hempstead county.

Sinyard states "Petitions will be circulated by civic club members, students, labor organizations and other concerned citizens in our county. We hope to reach our goal by June 15."

Clark County Judge Randall Mathis, who is chairman of the Association of Arkansas Counties' Constitutional Revision Committee spoke before a meeting of the Association last week. He said, "We are embarking upon a petition campaign which, if successful, will give the people of our State an opportunity to vote in November on an Amendment to revise county government. We have set up a plan of action which we believe will culminate in a successful campaign. To place this Amendment on the ballot, we must secure a number equal to 10 per cent of the total vote cast in the governor's race in the last general election, a total of 60,920 signatures. However, the goals that we have set for the counties, in the State as a whole, will bring in approximately 125,000 signatures, we intend to reach this goal."

Signers of the petition must be legal voters in the State of Arkansas, and must sign the petition exactly as their name appears on the voter registration rolls.

Popular name of the proposed Amendment is, "Arkansas Constitutional Amendment For Revision Of County Government." The Amendment, as it is summarized in the Ballot Title is: "An Amendment to revise the existing form of county government; to allow a county to exercise limited legislative authority; to authorize certain intergovernmental cooperation; to prescribe the term of certain county officers as four (4) years; to re-structure the Quorum Court; to authorize the Quorum Court to create, consolidate, separate, revise, or abandon any county office or offices subject to the approval of the electors at a General Election; to provide for certain duties and responsibilities of the county judge; to provide for certain duties and responsibilities of the Quorum Court and to limit the number of members thereof; to provide for establishment of salaries of county officers by the Quorum Court within limits fixed by legislative enactment; to provide for bonding of county officers as provided by law, to specify the effective dates of this Amendment; to repeal conflicting provisions of the Constitution; and for other purposes."

Knows How to Modernize Office

NORTH LITTLE ROCK (AP) — John L. "Jack" Riggs of North Little Rock, the walking candidate for secretary of state, said Saturday he knows how to modernize the office.

Riggs worked in the office until resigning to run against the incumbent, Kelly Bryant of Hope.

The challenger for the Democratic nomination said he would modernize the office and had the know-how since he had spent one-third of his life as an employee of the office.

Riggs has completed the first leg of his walk across Arkansas.

Pryor Critical of McClellan

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Rep. David Pryor, D-Ark., who is seeking the position now held by Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., was again critical Sunday of McClellan's voting record.

Pryor, in a speech before a group of youthful supporters known as the "Priority Majority Clubs," said that McClellan had consistently voted against the common man and for special interest groups, banks and big business.

Pryor said that in 1971 McClellan voted against "education by opposing $1.5 billion in federal aid to local schools for quality and equal educational opportunities."

The congressman said that in 1971 McClellan also voted against:

—"Our youth by opposing an increase in manpower development funds to give young workers new skills.

—"Our soldier sons by voting against pay increases for the lower ranks in our military.

—"Farmers and small businessmen by opposing loan guarantees for them in times of bad economic conditions.

—"The individual taxpayer by opposing an increase in the personal tax exemption.

"Those were the 1971 votes, but the pattern of insensitivity to human needs was no different from any of his 30 years in the United States Senate," he said.

When They Return

Prisoners Like Rip Van Winkle

By BILL STOCKTON AP Science Writer

DALLAS (AP) — When the U.S. prisoners of war held by North Vietnam are released, they'll find themselves Rip Van Winkles in an alien world, part hero, part coward and part oddity, an Army doctor predicts.

Speaking Sunday at a meeting of the American Academy of Psychoanalysts, Col. Edward J. Huycke said returning the prisoners to society will be a complex task filled with psychiatric pitfalls. A single slip could ruin the repatriate's life and tear his long suffering family apart.

Huycke, director for professional services in the office of the assistant secretary of defense for health and environment, reported on a study by a team of Pentagon doctors on the handful of U.S. prisoners of war who have been released or escaped since the Vietnam War began.

On one hand will be the prisoners, some held now more than five years, all with highly unrealistic expectations about home.

"The prisoner of war will find little understanding," Huycke said, "family hardships matched against his personal Hell: estranged wives; children who don't know him or worse don't even like him ... trouble-some feelings of guilt, chronic depression, headaches and fatigue, a confused picture of himself as part hero, part coward, part oddity and part modern version of Rip Van Winkle to quote one former prisoner of war."

The prisoner of war will return to a wife and family that has coped with extreme stress for several years, Huycke said. They'll be vastly changed.

"The wife of the prisoners of war has the sole responsibility for the development of the children. She must make daily decisions on her own, but constantly has the feeling that she will be held accountable to her husband when he is released for whatever happens to the children," he said.

"The wife idealizes her husband's return. She believes that once he is released, her problems will be resolved and everything will be perfect.

"In actuality, she is due for a tremendous letdown, since a new series of problems will arise at that time," Huycke said.

The medical community must be ready for these men when they're released, the Army doctor said.

"I must have plans for rehabilitation and integration into society that will add dignity to the man without exposing him too early or too foolishly to risks that are not in his or his family's best interests," he said.

And the greatest danger is forgetting the prisoners of war once they're safely home.

"Over the long haul I have the fear that once out of sight we'll put these men out of mind. But we can't forget them. We have to stay around to help," he said.

Prescott-Nevada Co. Centennial Plans

The City of Prescott will take on an air of the old during the last week of May. Beginning with an old fashioned Bar-B-Que on Thursday night, May 25, and continuing through the following Saturday night, Prescott and Nevada County will observe its 100th birthday with what shapes up to be quite a celebration.

An address by Arkansas Governor Dale Bumpers will highlight the first night's activities. Country music star, David Houston, will bring a star studded cast to Prescott for a Friday night performance at the high school football field, and a day of old fashioned fun, including a Fiddlers Contest and a Pie Supper, will highlight the final day's activities, on Saturday.

Advance tickets are available, for both the Bar-B-Que and the David Houston Show and may be obtained by writing to the Prescott Chamber of Commerce.

Bar-B-Que tickets are priced at $2 each and advance tickets for the Houston Show are $2.10 for adults and $1.10 for children under 12. Everyone is invited, so make your plans to be in Prescott the last weekend in May for a celebration you won't soon forget.

Thompson Opens Headquarters

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Pros. Atty. Bill Thompson opened his Little Rock headquarters Sunday and promised to support the proposed amendment for county reorganization by the Arkansas Association of Counties.

Thompson, of Fort Smith, is seeking the Democratic nomination for state attorney general.

"As Arkansas' next attorney general," he said, "I would welcome the opportunity to work with these county officials in implementing these revisions and reorganizations called for under this proposed amendment."

Among other things, the amendment would reduce the number of persons on county quorum courts and would give the county governments more authority for home rule.

About 100 persons attended the open house Sunday, a spokesman said.

LEGAL NOTICE

LEGAL NOTICE

NOTICE OF SALE OF SCHOOL BONDS

Hope School District No. 1-A of Hempstead County, Arkansas, hereby gives notice that it will sell on auction bids on the date specified below its proposed issue of $400,000 Construction School Bonds, to be dated May 1, 1972, with interest to be payable semiannually on February 1 and August 1 of each year, commencing February 1, 1973, and maturing serially on February 1 of each year as follows:

YEAR	AMOUNT
1974	$8,000
1975	9,000
1976	10,000
1977	11,000
1978	12,000
1979	13,000
1980	15,000
1981	16,000
1982	17,000
1983	18,000
1984	19,000
1985	20,000
1986	22,000
1987	23,000
1988	26,000
1989	28,000
1990	30,000
1991	32,000
1992	34,000
1993	37,000

The bonds were approved by the electors of the District at the annual school election on March 14, 1972, and at said election a continuing annual building fund tax of 3-1/2 mills on the dollar of the assessed valuation of the taxable real and personal property in the District was voted for the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds until paid in full. The bonds will be general obligations of the School District secured by the District's full faith, credit and resources. They will be primarily payable from said building fund tax, but in addition, the bonds will be secured by a pledge of all revenue that the District can legally pledge, including the annual surplus derived each year from the building fund taxes previously voted for bonds now outstanding. The surplus arising each year from the District's building fund taxes may be used by the District for other school purposes.

The assessed valuation of the taxable real and personal property in the District, according to the 1971 assessment is $13,507,239.

The purchaser may name the Trustee and Paying Agent. All expenses of the issue, including the printing and trusteeing of the bonds and the fee of Smith, Williams, Friday, Eldredge & Clark, Bond Counsel, Little Rock, Arkansas, will be paid by Stephens, Inc., Little Rock, Arkansas, the District's fiscal agent.

Neither supplemental nor dual coupons will be permitted but the purchaser will have the privilege of converting the bonds to an issue bearing a lower rate or rates of interest with any conversion to be in accordance with the Universal Bond Values Tables and upon such terms that the District receive no less and pay no more than it would receive and pay if the bonds were not converted, with any conversion to be subject to the approval of the Board of Directors of the District and of the Director, Department of Education of the State of Arkansas. In addition, the following conversion conditions shall be applicable:

- (1) The average maturities cannot be shortened by more than six months;
- (2) The converted schedule shall contain not more than four (4) rates of interest (not counting the same rate of interest that is repeated for different maturities); and
- (3) The difference between the lowest rate of interest in the converted schedule and the rate bid must not be greater than 1 percent.

The bonds will be callable for payment prior to maturity, at the option of the District, in whole or in part, in inverse numerical order at par and accrued interest as follows: From surplus proceeds of said building fund tax on any interest paying date; from funds from any source on any interest paying date on and after February 1, 1977.

No bid of less than par and accrued interest will be entertained. Only one rate of interest shall be bid and the award, if made, will be to the bidder whose bid results in the lowest net interest cost to the District computed by determining the total interest cost from date to maturity.

The bonds will be sold upon auction bids at 7:30 o'clock p.m. on the 8th day of May, 1972, in the office of the Superintendent, Administration Building, Second and South Walnut, Hope, Arkansas. Each bidder will be required to file a certified or cashier's check in the amount of $8,000 on a bank that is a member of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, payable to the District, to be kept as liquidated damages if the bidder is awarded the sale of the bonds and fails to complete the purchase. Checks of unsuccessful bidders will be promptly returned and the District will not pay interest on good faith checks. The District reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

The successful bidder will be furnished, without cost, the unqualified approving opinion of the law firm of Smith, Williams, Friday, Eldredge & Clark, Little Rock, Arkansas, to the effect that the bonds are valid and legally binding obligations of the District and, unless paid from other sources, are payable from the continuing annual tax levied upon all of the taxable real and personal property within the District. They will also furnish a statement in such approving opinion that they have taken into account litigation recently instituted in certain states, such as Serrano v. Priest, in California, Van Duzart v. Hatfield, in Federal Court in Minnesota, Rodriguez v. San Antonio Independent School District, in Federal Court in Texas, and Hayes v. Sherrell, filed January 17, 1972 in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Arkansas, challenging the constitutionality of the present system of levying the taxes and applying funds for public school purposes, and that it does not modify or qualify the conclusions stated in their opinion.

For further information address the undersigned or Stephens, Inc., Little Rock, Arkansas.

Given this 10 day of April, 1972.

Raps Secrecy Mess in Government

WASHINGTON (AP) — The chairman of a congressional panel investigating government secrecy today said new laws are needed "to straighten out the secrecy mess which has been created in the name of national defense."

Rep. William S. Moorhead, D-Pa., made the statement in remarks prepared for the 15th day of his House government information subcommittee's inquiry into the effect of the 1966 Freedom of Information Act on secrecy in government.

Moorhead said agencies reported over 2,000 security-leak probes in the past five years; there were 2,500 reprimands or losses of pay for not enough secrecy; but no bureaucrat was punished for overclassification.

Nixon Likes Big Country

FLORESVILLE, Tex. (AP) — President Nixon came to the Big Country and liked what he found.

Squinting over the spring-green pastures of Treasury Secretary John B. Connally's Texas ranch Sunday, he pointed toward the Western horizon where the sun had slipped behind blue-gray clouds and said: "What appeals to me ... is the sweep of the country. This is big country. It produces big men"

Texas also produces 25 electoral votes—a fact that surely figured in Nixon's decision to come to this state six months before an election he hopes will return him to the White House for another four years.

And, in coming, he got a Texas-sized reception guaranteed to warm any politician's heart.

There was a tour of the 3,500 gently rolling acres of Connally's ranch, including a close-up look at his herd of Santa Gertrudis cattle.

This was followed by a dinner of steak, corn-on-the-cob and black-eyed peas, attended by 200 of Connally's Texas friends, including many who are major political-campaign contributors and some who flew in on nearly a score of private planes parked on the ranch runway.

At the dinner there were rounds of toasts including one proposed by a guest who said he would "like to raise my glass to the courage of the President of the United States."

Nixon's after-dinner remarks turned into an hour-long question-and-answer session with the well-dressed guests gathered on the manicured lawn of Connally's low-slung ranch home.

Later, booming aerial fireworks displays brightened the night sky, and a ground display burst into full red-and-blue glory. It was a profile of Nixon, complete with a noticeable ski nose, a sign saying "Hail to the Chief" topped with an American flag.

Of his visit to the Connally spread, Nixon told newsmen: "I got a big kick out of it Now that I've seen some of it (Texas), I'll have to come back to see the rest."

Busing Views of Candidates About Same

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Little difference among the views of congressional candidates on President Nixon's busing moratorium proposal is reflected in a poll.

Almost all candidates suggest that the moratorium would discriminate against the South, since it would bar only new busing. Most existing busing orders are against Southern school districts.

Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., called the action insufficient and said not enough was being done "to correct the harm being done to our public schools and our children" through busing.

Money spent on busing could be better used to pay teachers, he said.

Ted Boswell of Bryant, who said he opposed forced busing, added that only time will tell whether Nixon really has a solution to the problem. He said he believed Nixon took the action for political purposes. Boswell is running against McClellan.

David Pryor of Camden, another candidate for McClellan's job, is on record as opposed to forced busing, but he said he had made no decision yet on Nixon's moratorium proposal.

M. E. Stolberg of Wayton, the only 3rd District congressional candidate replying in the poll, called the proposal "semantic fog to leave the impression he is taking some action where actually he is not."

Among the 4th District congressional candidates, Richard Arnold of Texarkana, Ray Thornton of Sheridan and Richard Mays of El Dorado said the proposal would discriminate against the South.

Arnold added that he doubted the constitutionality of the proposal, since it would forbid federal courts from using a certain remedy to redress a constitutional wrong. He said this view of his was tentative, however, since he had not actually read the proposed legislation. Jack Coleman of McGehee, a 4th District candidate, did not reply prior to publication of the poll results.

A SENTIMENTAL DAY
NEW YORK (AP) — Humorous cards are the rage these days but there is no kidding around on Mother's Day. "Mother's Day has a special meaning for most people and there's a lot of sentiment involved," says Irving Cohen, head of a chain of greeting card stores.

Young Reader Tries Suicide

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

Dear Dr. Lamb—I read your article about the girl who tried to commit suicide. Well, I have had that experience. I took an overdose of aspirin—a whole bottle. Well, obviously I am still alive, but it was no fun. I sat through the whole time because I didn't want anybody to know about it, especially my mother. I did this because of my ex-boyfriend. I have thought about trying it again. I am so mixed up I don't know what to do. Could Oswald: "One of the easiest bad habits for a player to fall into is that of not recognizing the fact that when his partner opens the bidding and he has more than 10 points it is up to him to take some aggressive action."

Jim: "They know this when they have as many as 13 since the idea that an opening bid opposite an opening bid is worth a game is well established. It is the 11 and 12 point hands that cause trouble."

Oswald: "Here is a case in point. Someone had taught North to raise partner's major suit when possible. North felt that his hand wasn't strong enough to warrant a jump raise so he raised to two with his eleven high card points."

Jim: "North has enough for a non-forcing jump to three. He does not have enough for a forcing jump. He also has enough to respond to two diamonds."

Oswald: "A two-diamond response would lead to a two-spade rebid by opener. North could then raise to three spades and South would be strong enough to continue to game."

Jim: "South made five spades in the play. He simply ruffed the third heart and went after diamonds. With all suits breaking he lost no more tricks."

you please give me some advice? Is there any chance of after effects of taking the aspirin, because I went deaf for a whole day because there was a ringing noise in my head?

Dear Reader—You are certainly not alone. In 1965, one authority estimated that there were 60,000 attempted suicides in young people under age 20 each year in the United States. The teen-age period is a particularly difficult time, because of the change from dependency on parents to independence and the powerful influence of dramatic changes in the body.

Parents' Prom for Seniors Successful

The '72 Senior Dance sponsored by twenty-five Senior parents was held in the National Guard Armory, Friday, April 21, 8-12 p.m. Fifty-five seniors and their dates enjoyed the evening of dancing to the music of "Cade's Gang", a well-known group from Springdale. This is one of the best groups to appear in Hope in recent years.

The event which the Seniors had looked forward to for several months followed the Senior banquet. The girls wore long formal dresses and the boys were dressed either in tuxedos or dress suits.

As the Seniors entered they were greeted by "A Summer Place" in glittering letters suspended from the ceiling. This theme was carried out in the decorations which literally turned the Armory into a summer garden. A flowered swing decorated with paper flowers which the Senior girls had made was suspended from the ceiling. Behind the swing was a backdrop of hand made flowers. In front of this arbor photographs were made of the Seniors and their dates. Bamboo lined the walls along with clever flowered posters.

On one side of the Armory patio tables were set up with candles and flowers on each table. Potted plants were set among the tables. The refreshment table was decorated with roses and candles. Senior parents furnished tea cookies, dainty sandwiches, chips, and cupcakes.

The student dance committee was Paul Young, chairman; Tommy Frazier, arrangements; Debbie Gunter, decorations and photographs; Steve Harris, tickets; and Sandra McFarland, clean-up. Other committee members were Beth Gilbert and Steve Routon. Senior parent sponsors appointed the following adult committee to assist the students: Mrs. Lynn Harris, chairman; Mrs. W. E. McFarland, treasurer; Mrs. W. H. Gunter, chaperones and decorations and Mrs. E. P. Young, Jr., refreshments. The other twenty-five senior parents served as chaperones, furnished refreshments and financial assistance. About forty seniors assisted the student committee in ticket sales and decorating.

The Student and Parent Committee of the Class of '72 wishes to thank the Seniors and their parents who backed them in the one social event that was held for them since they had been in high school. The event was a success in every way. Special thanks also to Sgt. Claude Byrd of the National Guard Armory, Kroger Grocery, Hope Beverage Company, Collier Furniture Company, and Floyd Young for their help with arrangements and decorations.

State Seeks Land Owned by Methodists

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Methodist Children's Home superintendent said Saturday he was surprised to hear that the University of Arkansas would file a land condemnation suit against the home.

The Rev. J. Edwin Keith, home superintendent, said he learned of the plans from news media.

The U of A board voted Friday to file suit in connection with 55 acres the home owns next to the university's Little Rock campus.

The home and the university have unsuccessfully negotiated over what price the university should pay to purchase the property.

The university offered $1.5 million. The home asked $1.9 million plus 6 per cent interest.

"We did not believe the university would take such drastic action without at least notifying us of their intent or making a bona fide offer to buy the 55 acres," the Rev. Mr. Keith said.

"This is disappointing to us," he said. "The Board of Trustees of the Childrens Home have resisted offers from commercial developers since October 1963 which would have brought needed income to the home."

"We have had many, many offers since, but continuously members of our board of trustees have maintained that the university should have priority," he added. "We were hoping the university would be willing to pay the Methodist Childrens Home a reasonable price for our property when other property near us was selling for a higher price than we were asking for ours."

He said the university's offer amounted to $25,000 per acre, but another party had offered us $41,750 per acre.

Storms Hit Nation

A storm system moving across the Great Plains early today spawned tornadoes and severe thunderstorms across areas of Kansas, Oklahoma, Nebraska, Iowa and Missouri.

Kansas was hardest hit late Sunday, with extensive damage and several injuries reported from tornadoes, high winds and hail.

One twister ripped through Bazine, Kan., destroying a mobile home and injuring several persons. Other storms destroyed several farm houses in other parts of the state, downed power lines and broke windows.

Hail the size of tennis balls was reported in a number of places.

Scattered showers and thundershowers reached up and down the Plains and branched across the Mississippi Valley to the Great Lakes region.

West of the storm system, a mixture of cold rain and snow caused stockmen's warnings from Wyoming to Nebraska and the Dakotas.

Fair and cool weather was reported on the West Coast, while the Southeast reported

Agree Not to Sell

HARRISON, Ark. (AP) — The chairman of the Buffalo River Conservation and Recreation Council said Sunday night that 190 landowners along the Buffalo River have pledged not to sell their property without a court suit.

Herb Van Deven, council chairman, said the council had hired Jack Holt Jr. and Gene Bailey, both Little Rock lawyers, to represent them.

Van Deven said the property owners had decided to test the constitutionality of an act which created the national river park along the river.

He said that the 190 landowners have agreed not to sell their combined 48,790 acres of land without a court fight.

Van Deven said the council met at Forsythe, Mo., Saturday with a similar organization in Missouri which has formed to fight the creation of the national park along the Buffalo River.
